How to become an extraordinary Team Leader

“Your job is to notice and address things so your bosses don’t have to”

Table of Contents

Vision to Recite 3

Discipline to Enforce 4

Execution to Demonstrate 5

Concepts to Discuss 6

Skills to Possess 7

Suggested Reading List 8

Vision to Recite

"Where there is no vision, the people perish"

- Proverbs 29:18a (KJV)

What are we about?

Core Values

Bring a Joyful Attitude

Strive for Excellence

Don't Whine, Complain or Gossip

Be Humble, Gracious, and Teachable

Clean as you go

Move with Urgency

Character Counts

What are we trying to accomplish?

Winning Hearts Every Day

Genuine Hospitality

Fast & Accurate Service

Great Food

Clean & Safe Environment

Who are we influencing?

Mission Statement

We want to be the best place to eat and the best place to work on the island

Influencing guests and team members with a 2nd Mile Servants heart (Matthew 5:41)

How do we attack this?

Four Laws of Combat

Cover and Move

Simple

Prioritize & Execute

Decentralize Command

From "Extreme Ownership" and "The Dichotomy of Leadership" by Jocko Willink & Leif Babin

Discipline to Enforce

"There are no big things. Only a logical accumulation of little things done at a very high standard of performance"

- John Wooden (legendary basketball coach at UCLA)

As a leader you will only get a combination of what you create and what you allow

What do we do?

- Keep our attention customer focused
- Crush clutter
- Enforce appearance standards
- Follow our Core Values
- Coach the details
- Language of Hospitality
- Make your teammates better and make it clear you expect their very best
- Ensure minor clock in/out rules are followed
- Promote a spirit of caring for each other

What do we not allow?

- Ignoring guests needs through goofing off or inattention
- Messes to stay unhandled
- Poor team member engagement
- Locking out machines
- GOSSIP/Drama/Abuse of grace
- Shake base/icedream area to be a disaster
- Bad fileting and breading
- Careless business decisions
- An absence of trust

For our team members, giving their best is good enough. But as a leader, you have to help them to truly give their best. Make it clear that you expect high standards in little things. Believe in them, challenge them and encourage them. When you do, those little things add up to excellent performance.

Execution to Demonstrate

"Having a vision for what you want is not enough. Vision without execution is hallucination"

- Thomas Edison

Tasks

- Creating a battle plan/approving a shift change/explaining a job
- Teaching, troubleshooting and demonstrating the fileting and breading process thoroughly
- Leading a successful shift without having to put yourself on bagging or primary boards
- Counting/Settling/Inserting a drawer and executing drawer changes/retrieving change
- Unloading a truck/stock list ensuring organization (everything is where it goes)
- Timers/AHA system/Prep/Boil Outs
- Ipad/Card readers/registers preparation and troubleshooting

Conversations

- Order taking 101/Day one training/CFA App/Menu test
- Explaining what and why to do things to a team member/addressing uniform or behavior
- Bagging/Boards training including relevant details
- What happens with shades/lights/alarm/opening or closing procedure/checklists
- Can present a point of view in a leadership discussion

Cleaning

- Teaching and modeling clean as you go/executing a great close
- Overview of chemicals and explanation of how to eliminate grease
- Noticing and addressing customer touchpoints and break room/manager station/whale/etc.
- SERVSAFE certification/Retain knowledge to teach and to pass yearly exam
- Protect our guests/Food safety habits

Concepts to Discuss

"If you aim at nothing, you are sure to hit it every time"

- Zig Ziglar

Sales

How Sales are Composed

Transaction Count (TC)

Check Average (CA)

Outside Sales (OS)

Profits

Where Profit comes from

How do we make a profit?

Why does it matter?

How could we fail to make a profit?

Main drivers

Main Components

- Food Cost
  - can you read/interpret the report
- Labor Cost/Productivity
  - Define productivity in metrics
  - Explain three ways to manage it
- Speed of Service/Car Counts
  - Know norms, goals, & records

Channels for feedback

Knowing how we did

CEM Quickscores (customer feedback)

CFA Now App reports

AHA metrics and what they say

Health Dept/SAFE/QIV

Skills to Possess

"The challenge of leadership is to be strong, but not rude; be kind, but not weak; be bold but not bully; be thoughtful, but not lazy; be humble, but not timid; be proud, but not arrogant; have humor, but without folly."

- Jim Rohn

Growth only comes through adversity. We get stronger when we "work out" a muscle. Here are 4 things you should be "working out"

Skills needed to LEAD

- Decision making (quality and timeliness)
- Problem solving (troubleshoot/efficient)
- Communication ability (impart the vision to others)
- Critical observation (notice the little things that make up excellence)

"Become the kind of leader that people would follow voluntarily; even if you had no title or position. And take a little more than your share of the blame and a little less than your share of the credit."

-John Maxwell

Suggested Reading List

These books, short of God's Word, are the ones that have been the most impactful for me over my leadership journey. If you are looking for a way to grow your perspective and abilities, these are all ones that I would suggest. Most if not all of them are available to borrow from me at no cost to you.

- Extreme Ownership: How US Navy SEALS lead and win by Jocko Willink & Leif Babin
- The Dichotomy of Leadership by Jocko Willink & Leif Babin
- The Five Dysfunctions of a Team by Patrick Lencioni
- The Three Signs of a Miserable Job by Patrick Lencioni
- The Ideal Team Player by Patrick Lencioni
- Turn the Ship Around: A True Story of Turning Followers into Leaders by Capt. David Marquet
- Failing Forward: Turning Mistakes into Stepping Stones for Success by John Maxwell
- The Secret: What Great Leaders Know and Do by Ken Blanchard & Mark Miller